

VOLUNTEERING THROUGH THE RECESSION

A one day conference for professionals

Thursday 4 February 2010, London

Unemployment amongst 16-to-24 year olds stands at 20%. The need for services often provided by the third sector is set to rise, as more people require housing support, debt advice, mentoring, family support and more.

Come to the conference to:

- Debate about how 16-to-24 year olds can volunteer to improve their chances of future employment.
- Find out how political parties are planning to encourage more young people to volunteer.
- Discuss the implications of the new Independent Safeguarding Authority's vetting scheme for volunteers.

Keynote Speakers include:

Rt Hon Francis Maude MP, Shadow Minister for the Cabinet Office

Rt Hon Anne McGuire MP, Cabinet Office Advisor on Third Sector Innovation
